Science and Math Camps for Girls

Nominate your best & brightest 7th grade girls to attend Tech Trek!

A week-long Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics (STEM) camp designed to create interest, knowledge, and confidence in young women. Tech Trek is a program of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) that is spreading across the nation! It will be held for the fifth time on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) campus in Weatherford in July 2017 and for the third time on The University of Tulsa (TU) campus in Tulsa in June 2017.

A nominated 7th grade girl must:

- Be excited by math or science
- Be motivated to learn
- Have at least a "B" average (is not necessarily the top student)
- Have limited access to programs such as these
- Be likely to benefit from this experience, both academically and personally

Personally, the student should:

- Make positive choices for herself, inside and outside of class
- Demonstrate responsibility, honesty, and accountability
- Exhibit self-control and have no serious discipline issues
- Show respect for and cooperate with teachers and students
- Be willing to try new and challenging tasks

Academically, the student should:

- Be able to follow directions
- Show persistence in task completion
- Participate in class discussions
- Work well in group situations and be willing to help other students
- Be interested in learning and experiencing new things, especially math or science

The time line for camper selection is:

- January: Teachers and counselors identify and nominate 7th grade girls*
 - February: Nominated girls submit application
 - March: Girls interview with AAUW members
 - By March 31: Campers are selected by AAUW members and notified
 - May: Campers register and pay a camp reservation fee of $50 (non-refundable)
 - June or July 2017: Tech Trek Camp
- Girls may only attend on camp (not both)
